glad and rejoice
before God; let them
also be merry and joyful.

Affirmation of Baptism

May 17, 2026

Welcome to Worship

In these days between Ascension and Pentecost, we gather with the disciples in the upper room, waiting for the Spirit to transform the church around the world. In today's gospel Jesus prays for his followers and for their mission in his name. Amid religious, social, and economic divisions, we seek the unity that Jesus had with his Father. Made one in baptism, we go forth to live our faith in the world, eager for the unity that God intends for the whole human family.

Community Care – Michaela Biehn

Michaela Biehn recently had a double lung transplant. We now offer prayers of thanksgiving for a successful surgery and for her continued recovery. She will need to stay in Rochester for the next three months for follow-up treatments. Here is information if you would like to contribute to her ongoing healthcare costs:
