Fourth Sunday After Pentecost

June 21, 2026

Welcome to Worship

God does not promise that the path of the disciple will be easy. Jeremiah feels the pain of rejection from those who do not want to hear what he has to say. Jesus declares that his words may bring stark division. Even so, we need not be afraid for God accounts for each hair on our heads. Though we may experience rejection, frustration, division, and death, God's grace and love make us a new creation each day. Marked with the cross and filled with holy food, we are sent from worship to witness to Christ in the world.

Happy Father's Day!

Today, we take time to celebrate the fathers and father figures in our church family. Thank you for your dedication, hard work, and spiritual leadership. May God grant you wisdom and strength as you continue to pour into your families.

The Good Book

Have you ever felt intimidated by the Bible? It's large, intimidating, and can be confusing! And yet, "The Good Book" is our guiding moral authority and a source of divine wisdom. Starting on Wednesday, July 8th, you'll have the opportunity to dive into scripture through a series called "The Good Book", based on the book A Is for Alabaster by Anna Carter Florence (an Abcedery of the Bible). Join us on Wednesday nights at 7:00pm on the parsonage lawn for Campfire church, an informal gathering with devotions, prayer, and s'mores! (Bring a lawn chair and a snack or beverage.) On Sunday mornings we'll wade through some Bible stories that tie into the VBS theme of fishing - F is for Fish, B is for Boat, etc.

If you'd like to order your own copy of A Is for Alabaster, sign-up at church. The price is $20 or less depending on how many books we order.

Calendar:

Sunday, 6/21

- Worship w/ Holy Communion at 9:00 a.m.

Thursday, 6/18

- No Bible study

Third Sunday After Pentecost

June 14, 2026

Welcome to Worship

Moses tells the Israelites that they are called to be a priestly kingdom and a holy people. Jesus sends out the disciples as laborers into the harvest. In baptism we too are anointed for ministry, sharing God's compassion with our needy world. From the Lord's table we go forth to proclaim the good news, to heal the sick, and to share our bread with the hungry.

Donations

We are in need of your unwanted CDs for this year's VBS as well for a fun craft project. Please bring them to the office after Sunday service or during Thursday office hours. Thank you!
