

F is for Fish

...we can't hide below deck in a storm when there's work to do and a word to say.

Ninth Sunday After Pentecost

July 26, 2026

Welcome to Worship

"Jonah never wanted to be a prophet. That, in itself, isn't a bad thing. As the saying goes, "Never trust a prophet who signs up for the job." On the other hand, when God calls, it's time to go. Now."
- Anna Carter Florence "A Is For Alabaster"

Campfire Church

Who doesn't love a campfire/cook out during the summer? Join us on Wednesday nights at 7:00pm for Campfire Church! We'll gather on the parsonage lawn for a casual time of worship and fellowship. Bring a lawn chair or blanket to sit on and we'll provide s'more fixin's. Feel free to bring your favorite beverage and other snacks.

Vacation Bible School

Get "Hooked on Jesus" at VBS on July 27-30 from 6:00-7:30pm. We're getting our rods and reels ready for a fishing themed program with Bible Story puppet shows, games, activities and snacks. There's also an opportunity to go fishing one night. Register your child(ren), Kindergarten through 5th grade, or sign-up to help with our handy online form here or scan the QR Code on the poster.

Rootbeer & Hymns

There is a grand tradition within the Christian church of bringing together hymn-singing and pub culture. A popular legend has it that Martin Luther used tavern tunes for hymns (not true). 'Beer & Hymns' has emerged as a not-so-new form of worship. Our Savior's is hosting 'RootBeer and Hymns' on Sunday, August 9th at 11:30am. We'd gather on the grassy knoll by the Muni, sing some favorite hymns with a band and song leader, and serve root beer and root beer floats. Sign-up to help serve or donate supplies at the Welcome Table or contact Marcia Carlson (507) 317-9235.
